QUIET CELEBRATION FEATURES MEMORIAL DAY IN CHARLEROI

Monday Observed as True

MEMORIAL SERVICE SUNDAY

Rev. W. G. Mead Preaches Sermon
To Veterans and Their Friends—
Vacant Chair Draped With Flag—Neighboring Towns Observe Day.

Charleroi celebrated quietly Memorial Day on Monday, though virtually the celebration started on Sunday when union church services were held at the Methodist Episcopal church and Rev. W. G. Mead, Ph. D., the pastor preached the sermon. Among the features of Monday was that of the opening of the Charleroi playgrounds, an annual Memorial day event.

Rainy weather Sunday did not prevent a fair sized crowd from gathering at the Methodist Episcopal church at 3 o'clock. Old soldiers were there in a body, together with members of patriotic societies in Charleroi and the Veteran Guard Drum corps. The services had been arranged by the Veteran Guard Drum corps. Rev. Mead preached on the theme, "Self Sacrifice of Patriotism." Rev. John R. Burson, Rev. C. P. Bastian, Rev. W. G. Carl, Rev. E. N. Duty and Rev. A. J. Whipple took part in the services. The church choir rendered special musical numbers, a duet was sung by Miss Mary Glunt and Earl Nicholson, and a recitation was given by Miss Mary Welch. One of the pretty features of the service was when a large class of Sunday school young people marched into the room carrying flowers and flags for the vacant chair arranged in memory of William Dalzell a veteran who died within the last few weeks.

No program of unusual events was carried out at the playgrounds Monday, it being simply opened for the season. This year the playgrounds will be conducted under the auspices of the Child Welfare Association.

In neighboring towns some celebration was carried out. At Monessen a special program was rendered and Col. L. N. Robins of Greensburg made an address. Belle Vernon and Fayette City celebrated in the usual manner.

Several took advantage of the attractions offered at Eldora park to spend the day there and still others went to other communities to visit with relatives and friends. Locally practically all business houses were closed Monday, but departing from the custom of last year on certain holidays the hotel bars kept open. Business houses and private residences were decorated Sunday and Monday with American flags and generally the day was made out of quiet celebration.

POLICE CONDUCTING CAMPAIGN AGAINST LOAFING ON CORNERS

Some Trouble Experienced With Young Men on Fallowfield and Fifth—Campaign to be Continued.

Some trouble in preventing loafing about bank steps at Fifth street and Fallowfield avenue has been experienced by the police within the last few days. The offenders are boys of from 17 to 20 years and four were arrested Saturday afternoon.

Chief of Police Aloright states he has received complaints about the loafing at the corner and has repeatedly warned the boys and young men from loafing there. Warnings apparently have not had the desired effect. The campaign against loafing will be conducted not only on this corner, but on various streets.

LARGE CROWD ATTENDS AT ELDORA ON MONDAY

Grand Display of Fireworks in the Evening—Dancing in Afternoon
And Evening—Amusements Operate Full Blast.

More than 5,000 people visited at Eldora park during Monday. Dancing was featured in the afternoon and evening. In the evening there was a grand display of fire works set off by a Dunbar company. This same company set off the fire works last year and may also manage the fireworks on the Fourth. All of the amusements were operated full blast throughout the day. Memorial day was one of the largest days of the present season.

FAYETTE CITY HOLDS MEMORIAL CELEBRATION

Two Addresses, Feature Day at Up-River Town—Rev. E. D. Bevier is Master of Ceremonies.

Memorial day was observed Monday at Fayette City, and there were G. A. R. ritualistic services at the grave of the one veteran, Abraham Thirkield, who died during the year. The Fayette City Choral Club, of which Prof. I. T. Daniel of Charleroi is the director furnished the vocal music of the day. Two addresses were made, one by Dr. C. L. E. Cartwright of Pittsburg, and one by Rev. Dr. George T. Hackett of Fayette City. A parade preceded the service at the cemetery, participated in by several veterans in autos and other prominent persons, together with Sunday school folk and members of several lodges. Rev. E. D. Bevier was master of ceremonies. The Don to help in the celebration. Between 3,000 and 4,000 people attended the affair.

ALBERT G. VAN HOOK DIES AT MONONGAHELA

Prominent Man of Monongahela Expires Suddenly After Paroxysm of Coughing, During Which He Burst
Blood Vessel.

Albert Gallatin Van Hook, aged 64 years one of Monongahela's well known citizens, died at his home at Monongahela Sunday morning. Mr. Van Hook had been ill but had seemingly recovered. Saturday he felt so well that he made a trip to Pittsburg. Sunday morning he was seized with a paroxysm of coughing during which he burst a blood vessel. Death came soon after.

The son of Samuel and Marian Van Hook, the deceased was born in Fayette county. He came to Monongahela some years ago. For many years he was engaged in the glass industry, being for long an employee of the American Window Glass company. He was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church of Monongahela. He stood high in Masonic circles being a member of the Henry M. Phillips lodge, Monongahela Royal Arch Masons, Mt. Moriah council, Pittsburg Commandery No. 1, Pennsylvania Consistory.

Mr. Van Hook leaves a wife and one son, Leon, who lives in Columbus. He was a relative of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Bowers of Charleroi. The funeral services were held at the late home Tuesday afternoon at 1 o'clock and were in charge of the Knights Templar of Pittsburg. Interment was at Belle Vernon.

THE SHOOTING OF DAN MCGREW

The new production of the Popular Plays and Plays Company will be the pictureization of Robert W. Service's great poem classic, "The Shooting of Dan McGrew," with Edmund Breese, the eminent dramatic star in the leading role.

"The Shooting of Dan McGrew" is a poem that has probably created more favorable comment than any other rhyme of the Alaskan wilds. Powerfully vivid, and written in red-blooded style, "The Shooting of Dan McGrew" is the best work of the American Kipling, Robert W. Service, whose poems of Alaska in book form was sold into the millions. Edmund Breese and the company supporting him sojourned to the North-western Canadian woods during the heavy snow season, where all the big outdoor scenes were staged.

"The Shooting of Dan McGrew" is in five parts and is one of the real big productions of the period will be the attraction at the Majestic Theatre tomorrow. The poem of Dan McGrew will be published in the Mail tomorrow. 280-11

EXCITEMENT BEGINS WHEN CAR ON LOCAL LINE CATCHES FIRE

Packing Box Cause Wild Rush For Doors—Some Damage Done, But
No One is Seriously Hurt.

Considerable excitement and some damage resulted from a Charleroi-Eldora trolley car catching fire Monday evening on the route between Eldora and Charleroi. Some of the wheels became overheated and ignited. The flooring caught fire and wild excitement prevailed when the fire leaped into evidence. A rush was made for the door and several excited men burst some windows from the casing. In their excitement a crowd of people jammed the door so that it required several moments to open it. Nobody was seriously injured but considerable damage was done to the car. The damaged car is in the car barn at present undergoing repairs.

OBSEQUES HELD FOR THE LATE JOHN BANE

Funeral Services Take Place Saturday at Deemston—Was Relative of North Charleroi Man.

On Saturday afternoon obseques were held for the late John Bane at his home in Deemston. Mr. Bane was one of the best known and highly respected citizens of southwestern Washington county. Mr. Bane was in his 74 year and had been ill for the three months prior to his death. Funeral services were in charge of Rev. D. A. Cooper of Clarksville. Interment was made in the Buckingham cemetery.

He was the son of John and Nancy Morgan Bane and was born near Deemston, April 2, 1842 and had spent his entire life in that section following farming and stock raising. He was married to Miss Sara Hupp who survives.

One son, Russell Bane, cashier of the Fredericktown National bank survives. A brother, Morgan Bane of Deemston, also survives. Postmaster Seth Bane of the North Charleroi postoffice is a near relative of the deceased man.

Goodly Sum Realized for Benefit of Charleroi-Mon- essen Hospital

FIFTY GIRLS CONDUCT SALE

Few Refuse to Buy When Request is Presented and Coins of all Denominations up to $1 are Dropped Into Boxes.

The sum of $353.29 was realized by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Charleroi-Monessen hospital Saturday by their flag tag day celebration for the benefit of the hospital. Practically all of the 40 gross of tiny Memorial Day flags were sold, over 50 girls and women taking part in the sale and the tabulation was completed today at the Bank of Charleroi.

The sale was conducted in Charlro, Monessen, Belle Vernon and other points, and there were few persons who turned down the request to buy a flag. Each girl or woman carried a box into which coins were dropped the size of the coin being determined by the buyer of the flag. Coins of all denominations up to $1 were received and there were numerous pennies, nickels, dimes and quarters several half dollars and a few dollar bills.

The hospital auxiliary is planning a meeting tomorrow to consider plans for using the money to the best advantage for the hospital. At the same time they will arrange for another benefit.

THE GERMAN REPLY

The American press does not wait upon the reply of Germany to the United States note on the Lusitania affair and other similar affairs in any too friendly a manner. All demand more satisfaction and less temporizing. Some of the friendly German papers are merely conservative.

The St. Louis Die Westliche Post says: "The President has the right, after careful reflection, to dismiss the grounds submitted to him for a hearing, but first he must accord them his most respectful attention and before all things must not regard it as an insult that a nation, striving for its very being seeks to justify its methods of war. We, as Americans, to whom the call of the Republic is sacred, expect towards Germany neither sympathy nor generosity, only justice."

The Philadelphia Inquirer says: "The reply is temporizing. It is a play for time, a studied effort to involve this country in a meaningless and long drawn out discussion far afield from the real point of issue. Germany is trifling with the United States. The response is anything but satisfactory. The real test of the statesmanship and the backbone of President Wilson is about to be made."

The New York Times is conservative compared to some. It says: "The German reply is not responsive to our demand. It does not promote that 'clear and full understanding' which President Wilson declared to be desirable. The manner in which Berlin receives our representations cannot fail to create a most disagreeable impression which the note's outward form of courtesy will not remove."

The Washington Star declares: "The German reply procrastinates as to reparation. The Nation has confidence that President Wilson will press vigorously for reparation, and when that has been secured, will endeavor to bring about those negotiations between the United States, Great Britain and Germany, which will safeguard rights against violation by the belligerents."

The Kansas City Star says: "There is nothing in the German note to alter the position of the United States. This government would fail in its duty to its citizens and to the cause of humanity if it did not stand by the terms of its great protest."

The Philadelphia Public Ledger treats the note as follows: "The reply is a plea of confession and avoidance. It admits the allegation to be true but drags in irrelevant issues to weaken the admission. Vague regrets that leave the main question untouched, attempts to put the blame elsewhere, apologies that reveal a wilful misconception of the enormity of the offense, are little better than insults."

Another Philadelphia newspaper, the Evening Telegraph, carries the remarks: "Germany's reply evades the real issues and constructs a basis for long parleys and animations of alleged facts under the principle of Bryan's peace treaties. The reply is not only unsatisfactory but it is embarrassing. The situation is such as to call for the exercise of all the firmness and discretion which the President can command."

One of the most conservative newspapers is the Des Moines Tribune, which remarks as follows: "If the German contention is right and the Lusitania was not only carrying arms and soldiers contrary to the American rule of non-belligerents, but was in fact armed to resist attack the situation is very different than it would be if the English contention is sustained that Lusitania was engaged in strictly lawful commerce. In any event there should be a careful and painstaking determination of the exact status of the Lusitania."

CHARLEROI DIVIDES IN GAMES AT COKEBURG

Locals Lose Morning Struggle And Win in Afternoon Affray—Mellvaine Twirls Good Ball in Morning, Nichols in Afternoon.

The Charlevoi team divided honors in two games at Cokeburg, with Cokeburg Memorial day, losing the morning game by the score of 3 to 0, and winning the afternoon affray by the total of 8 to 7. John Mellvaine, coach and general supervisor of baseball affairs of the Magic City nine, did the twirling in the morning and Nichols pitched the afternoon game. Mac kept the Cokeburg sluggers down to eight hits and struck out nine men. Nichols permitted 10 hits and fanned nine. Charlevoi's hitting in the second game won the affair for them.

DROPSY CURED

Tells Everybody How This Happy Result Was Produced.

"Dear Editor:—For a long time I had been suffering from dropsy. My feet, ankles and abdomen were swelled to twice their natural size and a finger pressure on the swellings left a white dent which remained for some time. This water often pressed against my heart and caused a smothering sensation. I had severe headaches, continuous backache, dizzy sensations and rheumatic pains throughout my entire body. The kidneys were off in their action and this poison backed up in my system. In spite of my doctoring and the taking of many medicines, I failed to get relief.

Finally I was given a few Lloyd's kidney and rheumatism tablets, the new scientific prescription. These did me such good that I at once got a larger size and in a week's time all the swellings, backache, and other symptoms left me like magic. I now feel like a new woman. Lloyd's Tablets deserve all the credit for curing me of the trouble and ridding me of the terrible agony. I advise all to be sure and get from their druggist today. Lloyd's, the kind that cured me, and cleanse their kidneys before too late.

Avoid the Change Nuisance

Making change is a common nuisance in every-day life and frequently people are compelled to send to the bank or to an up-town store for change.

If you will open a checking account with this bank you can do away with the change nuisance—and then by paying your bills and making your purchases by check you will have a receipt for every cent paid out, to say nothing of a correct account of your expenses. Delays are dangerous—open an account TODAY.

Lime Starvation Causes Tuberculosis
The Medical Record (New York) of December 15, 1909, contains an article on "The Treatment of Pulmonary Tuberculosis, Based on the Assumption That the Dietetic Cause of the Disease is Lime Starvation," by Dr. John F. Russell, who says: "The condition which is recognized as preceding the active development of tuberculosis is the adult may be considered as due to lime starvation. . . . Among inorganic substances lime salts appear to be of special physiological importance, but if the salts are not in organic combination it is difficult to suppose that the cells can appropriate them for food."
Years of widespread use confirm us in the belief that the success of Eckman's Alternative in cases of pulmonary tuberculosis (consumption) and chronic throat and bronchial troubles is due in large measure to its content of lime, so combined with other ingredients as to be easily appropriated by the cells.
Doubtless this has had much to do with the results obtained in many cases of these affections, which appear to have yielded to Eckman's Alternative.
As it contains no opiates, narcotics or habit-forming drugs, it is safe to try. Your druggist will order it for you or you can send direct.

CREDIT GUIDE

For This District as a Basis of Credit

By this system each individual is placed on record, showing how many places they secure credit, and with what degree of promptness they pay their bills. The book will show, not the financial standing, but the CREDIT STANDING of everybody, man or woman, who trades on time, and as it is not a financial rating the poor man who pays his bills promptly will secure higher rating than the man with means who does not.

Now is the time to pay your old accounts and secure a

To the Business Men of Charleroi

When a run-down salesman calls on you, do you buy his goods? Aren't you afraid of his line because he looks as if no one ever gave him an order?

Same thing is true of a seedy town. To be prosperous it must look prosperous and show local pride.

Clean streets, nice stores and well-painted buildings pay because they bring business. Paint-hungry buildings are least excusable, for paint made of
